Colorado Springs, Co. 80906
Office: 719-632-0740

This Advance is for young people who enjoy proper instruction from the standard of life, God's Word, which provides the knowledge needed in order to live a more abundant life. The Advance will consist of a series of teachings regarding the importance of reading, understanding and living God's Word. This will help the student develop a better comprehension of why the Bible is the place to go to understand life rather than anyone's experiences.

Registration is Friday night from 6:30-7:30. The first teaching will start at 8:00. Pizza will be served at 10:00. The last event will be Sunday lunch. Participants can leave after lunch on Sunday starting around 1:00.

The cost is $136 per person. This covers two nights lodging and 6 meals. The students will be lodged in one large cabin which is fully equipped with heat, electricity, bathrooms and showers. Bedding and towels are provided.

What to bring: An attitude of love and eagerness to learn about God and His Word in order to truly bless His people. Also bring a Bible, toiletries, warm clothes, a winter type coat, flashlight.

What not to bring: Aggravation, disgust, worry, or a bad attitude. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted. Smoking is in designated areas only. Cell phones do not work at the camp.

Come venture into the Rocky Mountains expecting God's blessings. The ranch is located high in the mountains 8 miles southwest of Colorado Springs in the Pike National Forest. The elevation of the camp is 9100 feet. Dress is casual. Activities available on Saturday include rappelling, rock climbing, hiking, volleyball, disc golf, foosball, and ping-pong.

More information about the ranch is available at their web site: www.BearTrapRanch.org.
